

F3459002 SINOP

With its composition based on the line of a mihrab, SINOP reinterprets, as a printed cotton velvet, an original Persian ikaté silk carpet from the 19th century found in the archives of the Maison Pierre Frey.

To best reflect the beauty of this archive, the marks of time on the precious fibers have been replicated, as well as the typical borders of the drawing. As a wall hanging, upholstery or curtains, this design can match with or without the borders, presenting grandiose herringbones.
