

F4078002 BARFLEUR

A reinterpretation of a Scottish tartan, BARFLEUR completely changes its identity depending on its colouring: sometimes neutral and modern, summery and colourful, or traditional with a beautiful shade combining deep reds and greens. Its chenille yarn gives it a particularly soft and supple feel, while being very resistant for seating use. This high-performance indoor-outdoor fabric is woven in Pierre Frey's EPV-certified workshops in northern France, European experts in weaving light-resistant, water-repellent and washable textiles.
