

F4122001 PALETTE

When Isabelle de Borchgrave paints, she mixes her colours on a sheet of paper and, without intending to, begins to compose. Her palette becomes a painting in itself: pure creative impulse, where everything is expression. As she blends her colours, one can feel the intensity of her gesture, the vitality of her hand, and her instinctive sense of colour. It is also a tribute to the studio, that extraordinary place where anything can emerge. This creative intensity inspired PALETTE, a magnificent jacquard with powerful hues and a supple hand.
