

F4157001 ASCOT

ASCOT does more than simply dress a room—it breathes life into it. Like a morning mist, this exceptional panel reveals a clan-inspired pattern with timeless lines, seeming to emerge and dissolve within a dreamlike gradient of color, both vertically and horizontally. Its texture invites touch. The result of a noble blend of alpaca, mohair, and wool, it offers an infinitely soft hand. Thanks to a delicately brushed finish, the fiber becomes airy, capturing the light to create an effect that is as warm as it is precious. Conceived as a statement piece, ASCOT embraces boldness: used as a curtain, it becomes sculptural, creating a shifting cloud of wool—an undulation as lively as it is refined. As a throw on a sofa, it drapes over seating to transform a moment of rest into an experience of absolute comfort.
